

I love throwing myself into challenges I couldn't envision. Instead of waiting for the rare chance to join large-scale international productions in Taiwan as a local crew, I'd rather jump in proactively. Plus, I'm a big fan of British culture—so here I am in London!

My journey in the art department began in 2018, assisting production designer Ren-Jieh Hsiao for over three years. During the time, I participated in 2 TV series, 2 feature films, 7 A-list pop music videos, and 30+ commercials.

My biggest passion is solving practical problems and getting involved in the secrets behind the scenes. Also, working with a bunch of fantastic people is my favorite part of this job!
